

We have spent over $100,000.00 in defending our right to the Bull Durham brand. Undoubtedly he is to-day the most valuable Bull in the world. Now it stands to reason that we should defend it as we would our own. All dealers in tobacco should be careful to get the Bull Durham brand. Look for trademark of the Bull on every package.

The sales of Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco far exceed those of any other brand in the world. Now it stands to reason that we should defend it as we would our own. All dealers in tobacco should be careful to get the Bull Durham brand. Look for trademark of the Bull on every package.

TRY BRITANNIA!

The Great Remedy for Rheumatism.

This justly popular medicine is decidedly without a parallel in the effecting of rapid and permanent cures. It is entirely reliable, and not only removes the cause of Rheumatic pains from the blood but tones up the entire system. The Stomach, the Kidneys and the Liver participate in the benefits derived from its use, and persons who were troubled with sour stomach, kidney complaints and indigestion, have entirely recovered after using Britannia even for only a short time. One bottle will generally effect a cure. A testimonial of the medicine makes a wine-cupful of the tonic. It is pleasant to take, and many persons keep it as a family medicine, using it as a mild aperient and appetizer. Price 25c. per bottle. Special rates to the trade. Z. C. M. I. Drug Department, general agents for Utah, Main street, Salt Lake City.

NOTICE.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE stockholders of the Utah Central Railroad Company, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year, will be held at the office of the Deseret National Bank, Salt Lake City, U. T., on Monday, May 5th, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m.

WE'D START A DAILY PAPER WITH IT

During the recent visit of the Illinois Press Association to this city, among the other places of interest visited by them was the treasury department, where, after securing the necessary permit from the secretary, they were taken by their guide down into the vaults where is stored the millions of surplus revenue that have been so steadily accumulating for the past years. The group of editors were particularly struck with the packages of bonds, which had the value of the contents printed in plain letters on the outside of each. Noticing the interest taken in this direction, the guide picked up a package marked $10,000,000, and, handing it to a fat editor, said: "Put that under your arm, and you can say that you have had $10,000,000 in your hands all at once." The scribe hugged the bundle up to his chest convulsively, and a twelve-inch smile split his countenance into two good-natured hemispheres.

"What would you do with it, Hawkins, if it were all yours?" asked one of his friends. The buxom journalist turned pale, the cold sweat gathered on his brow, and his eyes stuck out like knobs on a hat rack at the bare thought of possessing so much wealth. "I'd—er—I'd—er go down to Aurora," he at last managed to gasp out, "and—er—by thunder I'd start a daily newspaper."—Washington Republican.

ADVANCE WARNING.

A year or two ago when a young man from Boston landed in a new town in Nebraska he was at once approached by a middle-aged man who introduced himself as Jones, and added:

"Going to settle down here?"

"Yes, I think so."

"Single man are you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, I want to warn you right here and now about certain things. I own the only church in town; my son keeps the only saloon here; my brother owns the hotel, and I am engaged to the only single female in this county. My commission on all transactions is ten per cent. cash in advance. Come and see me."

Jim Webster, a hard looking colored man, was brought to justice in Austin for stealing some money from the house of Colonel Jones, one of the most respectable citizens. Said the Judge very impressively to Jim, "Don't you know that no good can come from stolen money?—that there is a curse on it?" "Boss, I didn't know Colonel Jones stole that money. I allus 'spected him ob tein an 'honest' man. White folks are gettin' to be mighty unreliable nowadays."

A sovereign remedy—A facetious son of Esculapius once prescribed to a love sick dame, who complained, among other ailments of a sore throat, "a shirt sleeve with an arm in it put round the neck at night."
